Welcome to LaGrange College!

We have been eagerly awaiting your arrival and are very excited about this academic year. There are new faculty to meet, new buildings to explore, friends to make, and ideas to ponder as a new chapter in your life begins. We encourage you to do the best you can in all you take on. During First Week, we will do our best to introduce you to what you can expect from your experience at LaGrange College as well as what we expect of you. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

We’d also like to encourage you to fully participate in this year’s Academic Symposium. Really listen. Really open yourself up to what these professors have to say. We’re willing to bet you learn something!

And take advantage of all the FUN that this week has to offer. We really want you to enjoy yourselves – and we want you to begin to feel as if LaGrange College truly is your home away from home.

Our personal best wishes for a successful year,

Linda Buchanan, Ph.D.
Vice President and Dean for Student Life and Retention

Jack Slay, Jr., Ph.D.
Dean of Students

Tara Kermiet
Director of Student Activities and Service

Congratulations on making your grand entrance to LaGrange College. We are glad you’re here!

THE HONOR CODE

“As a member of the student body of LaGrange College, I confirm my commitment to the ideals of civility, diversity, service, and excellence. Recognizing the significance of personal integrity in establishing these ideals within our community, I pledge that I will not lie, cheat, steal, nor tolerate these unethical behaviors in others.”

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council seeks to educate the college community about the LaGrange College Honor Code and enforce the Honor Code when violations occur.

THE SOCIAL CODE

The Social Code attempts to instill in every member of the student body a sense of moral and community responsibility. As such, LaGrange College expects its students to adhere to community standards. Likewise, if some fail to live up to these codes of conduct, the College expects students to enforce these standards through the Social Code and its Social Council. In this way, students assume the obligation of upholding the integrity of their community and of ethically preparing themselves for the world beyond college.

9:00 a.m.
Meet the Rev. Quincy Brown, the Religious Life Organizations, your Student Government Association Executive Council, and members of the Social Code for an overview of student leadership. Dickson Assembly Room.

First Week Academic Symposium Day 1

Academic Symposium Session 1: Join LC authors Michael Bishop, Dr. John Williams, Noni Tyent, and Dean Jack Slay for a panel discussion of their stories appearing in Cross of Centuries. Students are expected to have read the stories “Miriam,” “Sequel on Skorpios,” “Murmur’s Laws,” and “Passion” before attending this session. Come with questions for the authors!

11:00-11:50
Academic Symposium Session II: Cornerstone classes will meet for a follow-up discussion of the Cross of Centuries panel, including an extra story or two from the collection.

12:00-12:50
Lunch with the Faculty in the dining hall.

1:00-1:45
Academic Symposium Session II: Cornerstone classes will meet for a follow-up discussion of the Cross of Centuries panel, including an extra story or two from the collection.

2:00-5:00
Take advantage of some free time and begin building your yachts for the Y’Gotta Regatta.
2:30-4:00  Required New Student Testing in Banks Library Multi-Media Lab and Hawkes Hall Computer Lab in the Education Department. If you are scheduled for this testing, Dr. Sharon Livingston will contact you by e-mail.

7:30-9:00  Rumble in the Jungle! Your beloved TAs will lead Cornerstone groups through a fun series of tasks and games – including an obstacle course deep in the heart of the LC woods. Dress comfortably and wear running or tennis shoes. The Cornerstone class with the best score will win a dinner in town! So let’s get ready to RUUMMBLLLLEEE! Beside the Natatorium down at the Callaway Campus. Wear your First Week T-shirts!

9:30 p.m.  Comedian Taylor Williamson. Get a good laugh as this young, up-and-coming comic shares his wild and hilarious insights on life and living. The Pit.

10:30 p.m.  Movie: In Bruges. As two hit men hide out in Bruges, Belgium, their views on life and death are altered as they become used to the local customs—and learn to shoot first and sightsee later. Dickson Assembly Room. Game Room and Grill are open and serving.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 27

9:00-11:00  Service Projects. You will have opportunity to help out in some community service. Rewarding and fun! Wear work clothes and shoes because you’re gonna get dirty! Required of all Cornerstone students!

11:00-12:00  As you return to campus, swing by the Patio to sign up for Thursday’s Academic Symposium Sessions. Students will sign up for a total of 2 sessions (one for each hour). This is first-come-first-served, so once a session has filled, it is CLOSED. Rain location: Pitts Cafeteria.
